

Brianna Corrigan, Dance, Cheer and Tumbling Instructor, has been dancing for as long as she could walk. She danced at her first nationals at the age of four where her trio won 1st top high score. Brianna trained at Gold Star Academy of Dance in all styles of dance and tumbling, as well as other studios growing up. She was a member of the Gold Star Performance Company for 7 years and now works on choreography and rhinestoneing their costumes for competition. Brianna was a member of the Storm Chaser Dance team for the Storm soccer team, Swashbucklers cheerleader for the McHenry Country Pirates semi pro football team and a Team Illinois All Star Cheerleader as well as a UCA All Star all four years of high school. Brianna has already accomplished many things in her young career. Through the competition scene she's won many convention scholarships, nationals championships and judges choice awards for her performance quality. This quality is one skill she frequently focuses on while teaching. She has danced down Main Street USA in the Disney parade and in Chicago's Thanksgiving Day parade. She has been a front row half time performer at two BCS College Bowl games, danced the closing ceremony of the Gay Olympic Games at Wrigley Field and danced in several music video's including EDM artist Steve Aoki's "Ooh". Brianna has choreographed the last two Sandwich High School musicals. Brianna was a staff member of Universal Dance Association where she ran dance camps & competitions. She is a member of Movement Revolution Crew where she dances and teaches healthy hip hop programs at schools and events. This crew has performed on WGN, Carnival Choreographer's Ball-Chicago and World of Dance. In addition to working at GSTA, Brianna also works for Hall of Fame Dance Challenge as a backstage manager.