

Kandice Starr Office Staff

You will see Kandi working at the reception desk and helping with our spring performance.

Kandi has a Master's in Marine Conservation from the University of Miami's Rosenstiel School of Marine, Atmospheric and Earth Science. She interned with Everglades National Park, where she conducted sea turtle nesting surveys, fisheries surveys and water quality assessments of Florida Bay. Kandi has 3 daughters that keep her busy.